JENNIFER ESTRADA, CPA, SELECTED TO PARTICIPATE IN NATIONAL REVIEW OF CPA EXAM

Jennifer Estrada, CPA and Supervisor at Gorfine, Schiller & Gardyn, P.A. has been selected by the AICPA to participate in the CPA Exam Passing Score Panel. Ten participants were selected from across the country and represent public and private accounting. Participants must supervise young CPAs and have passed the CPA exam within the past six years.

The goal of the panel is to provide feedback to aid in the development of a new edition of the Uniform CPA Exam. The new exam is scheduled to be introduced in January 2011. The AICPA customarily reviews the passing score and requirements every five to seven years. The current Exam has been in use since April 2004. The meeting will take place in August.

Jennifer focuses on audits, reviews, and compilations for Not-for-Profit organizations, small and medium size businesses, and employee benefit plans. She has been with Gorfine, Schiller & Gardyn P.A. for six years.
